23.11.2009

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I was happy to prepare for you next sets of documentation to be prepared for consecutive classes of our course on History of Political Institutions. Please take notice of the following guidelines:

1. Preparing the Set No. 4, please consider two chapters of the King’s Two Bodies as an additional reading for the persons of particular interest in the subject.
2. Preparing the Set No. 5, please focus on the developments of the absolute monarchy only – the rest of the chapter will be to prepare for later classes.
3. Preparing the Set No. 6, please focus on the principal lines of development of the constitutional system of Poland and its specificity in comparison to absolutist regimes of the era in France and Tudorian England.
4. Preparing the Set No. 7, please take particular notice of the development of civic and human rights: their content and mechanisms of entrenchment. You will find helpful to include into your readings the remaining fragments of the Set No. 5.

My best regards,

Przemyslaw Biskup